Late Work Policy

All work must be handed in on time.

I will allocate you TWO "late passes" for the semester to use when you would like.

However, if you use a late pass for an essay, you may NOT do revisions.

Each "pass" is valid for 7 days after the assignment's due date.

they can; fools learn when they must"*

Questions??

I am available for extra help in room 2125 or the Library during Flex time —come and see me! Remember that you are ultimately responsible for your own education and you will determine your own success!

Your attitude, effort, use of class time, and lates are all part of your Work Habits mark.

Writing Tip: Plagiarism

This happens when a student tries to pass something off as his or her own when in fact the work, in part or in whole, is actually someone else's. This includes material from the internet, study guides, a friend, a family member, or another student. Plagiarism will result in an automatic zero. This can greatly impact your mark when formal writing is 40% of the course!!

*Can I submit assignments online?

The answer... sometimes. However ALL term essays are required to be handed in PRINTED on paper by 2:45 on the day it is due. If you are away the day it is due, you will be using a late pass if you have one. Due dates are given WELL IN ADVANCE so make arrangements to have your essay submitted if you are away.
